

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

ONE of the leading social events at Cummer, King and Queen county, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was the wedding of Miss Iva Pearl Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Vaughan, to Mr. Wayne Aubrey Childrey, of Richmond.

The wedding was celebrated in Mat-tapont Baptist Church, the Rev. J. W. Hart officiating, the church being beautifully decorated with goldenrod and ferns, and lighted with candles.

Miss Helen A. Childrey, of Richmond, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and wore white mull over yellow silk. She carried a bouquet of goldenrod, fringed with ferns. Mr. C. C. Vaughan, of Cummer, was best man. The other attendants were the bridesmaids—Misses Ethel and Ruth Goulding, of Mass Neck, Va.; Jessie Oliver and Louise Goode, of Richmond, and Mary McGeorge, of West Point—and the groomsmen—Messrs. Roy Temple, of New York; Frank Childrey, Charles Shepperson and Vivian Dickinson, of Richmond, and Alfred Vaughan, of Cummer. The bridesmaids were in white, with yellow sashes, and held clusters of goldenrod.

The bride, who is a graduate in the class of 1908 of the State Normal at Farmville, and has been a successful teacher in King and Queen, looked very handsome in a brown traveling costume. Her flowers were bride roses. She was the recipient of many beautiful wedding gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Childrey will spend their honeymoon at Niagara Falls and other Northern points. After September 25th they will reside at No. 240 East Broad Street. Wedding guests from a distance included Mrs. L. L. Childrey, Miss Mary Childrey and Mr. Charles Childrey, of Richmond; Mrs. Hettiger, of Texas; Mr. James Towles, of Charlotte Courthouse; Mr. L. V. Childrey, of Norfolk; and Miss Bessie Nunn, of West Point.

Rice-Dickinson.
The home of Mrs. W. T. Haynes, at Walkerton, Va., was the scene of a beautiful home wedding at noon of September 8th, when Mrs. Bessie Bagby Dickinson was married to Mr. Joel T. Rice, of Belton, S. C., the Rev. Alexander Fleet officiating.

The bride was formerly a member of the faculty at the Woman's College, Richmond, and is very well known here.

She is a daughter of Major John R. and Mrs. Bessie C. Bagby, late of King and Queen county, is highly connected, and the widow of the late A. E. Dickinson, prominently identified with the Baptist ministry for many years.

After receiving the congratulations and good wishes of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Rice left for their future home at Belton, S. C.

Smith-Scott.
Richmond friends are interested in the wedding of Miss Cornelia Eudora Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Willis Scott, of Somerset, Va., to Mr. Robert Alexander Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Smith, of Warrenton, taking place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the home of the bride, Spring Forest. The Rev. F. G. Scott, of Petersburg, the bride's uncle, officiated.

The parlor was decorated with palms, flowers and ferns, the color scheme being carried out in green and pink. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Miss Ellen Nellie Scott, of Petersburg.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore an imported gown of soft white silk trimmed with lace and embroidered chiffon. Her tulle veil was caught with lilies of the

The wedding of Miss Helen Elizabeth Winston, daughter of Mr. Dennis S. and Martha Francisco Winston, of Riverside Cottage, Louisa county, to Mr. Ernest Clinton Edwards, son of Dr. Julian T. and Mrs. Anna Pickett Edwards, of Cohoke, King William county, was celebrated at 1 P. M. yesterday, in the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. R. A. Williams, of Fredericksburg, officiating.

The house was decorated with chrysanthemums against a background of greenery. Miss Rosalie Francisco played the wedding march, and the bride came in with her father. She wore a white organdie and lace gown and a jabot of old lace, which adorned the ball gown of her ancestress, Misses Katherine Siloam, at Independence hall in Philadelphia, and also trimmed her grandmother's wedding dress. The lace was held in place by an Etruscan and topaz brooch, a wedding gift from her Grandfather Winston to his bride. Her flowers were a shower of bride roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Nannie Maude Winston, wore pink, and carried asters. Mr. Mark Smith Neale was the groom's best man, and little Misses Mary and Evelyn Winston were flower girl and ring-bearer.

Guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Neale, Mr. Mark Neale and Miss Neale, of Laneyville; Miss Murray Garrett, of King William; Messrs. M. H. and John Omohundro, Miss Omohundro, Mrs. Ryland Gwathorne, and Miss Lucy Gwathorne, of Richmond.

ELECTED DELEGATES

Daughters of Confederacy to Send Representatives to Manassas Meeting.
Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held a special meeting yesterday at 11 A. M., the principal object of the meeting being the election of delegates to the convention of the Virginia division at Manassas, October 14-16.

Delegates chosen were Mrs. N. V. Randolph, Mrs. E. D. Taylor, Mrs. Thomas Bocoec, Mrs. J. A. Timberlake, Mrs. W. R. Vawter, Miss Lucy Munroe, Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mrs. B. A. Blenner, Miss Bettie Ellyson, Miss Mamie Baughan, Mrs. Walter Christy, Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mrs. Charles Ferrell, Mrs. Enders Robinson, Mrs. D. A. Timberlake, Mrs. D. T. Williams, Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mrs. W. H. Chapman, Miss Bessie Hill, Mrs. W. H. Chapman, Mrs. J. T. Hughes and Miss Corling.

Mrs. Randolph announced to the chapter that the United Daughters erected by the Virginia Daughters at the Jamestown Exposition, had been accepted by the United States government, and that the building would soon be paid. As the scene of most pleasant hospitality, the part it played in the ter-centenary celebration, was most creditable to the women who planned, built and managed it.

Mrs. Thomas S. Bocoec reported favorably in regard to collections for the Arlington Memorial fund, and one hundred dollars collected and sent received.

The corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. H. Jones, reported to Mrs. Warner Moore, Mrs. Alfred Gray, Mrs. B. A. Blenner, Mrs. O. K. Blankenship, Mrs. H. H. George, Dr. James Whitfield and Mrs. C. E. Johnson.

Glazebrook-Robinson.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., September 9.—Mr. Haslet McKim Glazebrook, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Miss Emily Holmes Robinson, daughter of the late Benjamin Holmes Robinson, of Essex county, Va., were married at 4 o'clock this morning at "Locust Grove," the home of Judge John M. White, just north of the city.

The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, the Rev. Dr. O. A. Glazebrook, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Elizabeth, N. J., assisted by the Rev. Harry B. Lee, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, the bride's father.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was tendered the bridal party and out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Glazebrook left on the 7 o'clock train over the Southern Railway for an extended Northern tour.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Glazebrook, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. and Mrs. Francis Glazebrook, of Norfolk, N. J.; Mr. Ralph Brown, of Elizabeth, N. J.; Mr. Daniel M. Henry, of Baltimore; Mr. Otis Allen Glazebrook, of Elizabeth, N. J.; and Mr. and Mrs. Warrington Wood, of Richmond.

Miss C. Louise Robinson, of Elizabeth, N. J., sister of the bride; Mr. Felix Tallferro, of Elizabeth, N. J.; and Mrs. Warner Wood, of "Farmington," this county.

The bridal gifts were very handsome and numerous.

Tyler-Sanders.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, Va., September 9.—A wedding of interest to many in Virginia because of the groom's family having been conspicuous in Virginia history, took place at Charlottesville, N. Y., last Wednesday, when Miss Mary Sanders became the bride of Rev. John Paul Tyler, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Fredericksburg, Md.

The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, the Rev. Dr. George T. Tyler, of this city, presiding at Winchester District, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and took place at the home of the bride's uncle, Dr. George H. Tyler, of Winchester.

Assisted by Rev. Dr. Frank Knight Sanders, of Boston, and the groom's brother, Dr. George T. Tyler, of Buffalo, was the bride, the maid of honor was Miss Julia C. Tyler, of this city, a sister of the groom, and the bridesmaids were Miss Helen Sanders, of Boston, and Miss Jennie Sanders, of Clifton Springs, Walter B. Sanders, of Cleveland, and Norman Otis, of Wellsville, were groomsmen.

After a brief ceremony, the couple will reside in Wellsville. Mrs. Tyler is a daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Sanders, secretary of the American Board of Missions, who died about a year ago in Turkey.

Tunis-Ferebee.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, September 9.—Miss Elizabeth M. Ferebee and Mr. Mathew M. Tunis, both residents of Berkeley Ward, were quietly married this morning at 6:30 at the residence of Rev. Robert Gatewood, in Boush Street, in the presence of a few intimate friends. Mr. Gatewood performed the ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tunis left for New York. Miss Ferebee is the daughter of Mrs. B. W. Ferebee, and Mr. Tunis is the son of Mr. Theophilus Tunis, of the Tunis Lumber Company. The announcement of the marriage of the couple came as a great surprise to their host of friends.

PASTOR SAYS HE WILL NOT RESIGN

Raleigh Minister, Whose Deacons Withdraw from Church, Stands Firm.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., September 9.—Rev. P. G. Elsom, as a protest against whose pulp style and methods the board of deacons and fifty other members withdrew their membership in the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church, has returned to the city, and declares that he has no intention of resigning the pastorate, in spite of the claim the "heliogent members" are making that he promised to resign if the written criticisms of his pulp ministrations were withdrawn. He claims to have a majority of the church membership with him, and he and Mrs. Elsom say they are prepared to continue the pastoral relations indefinitely, without salary, if necessary.

The deacons and other influential members who have withdrawn will await the return of Mr. John T. Pullen, founder and principal supporter of the church, before they start any definite movement to regain possession of the church property.

Postmaster Willis G. Briggs, president of the Association of North Carolina Postmasters, which is to meet in annual session in Charlotte October 22d and 23d, announces that E. H. The convention assembled about 2 o'clock, and went immediately into executive session, or caucus, all differences as to candidates being settled behind closed doors, and immediately thereafter Briggs was unanimously chosen. He is a former newspaper man of this city, and has hosts of friends in both parties. It is understood he will not resign the postmaster-ship for the campaign.

Attacked by Dog.
A vicious dog attacked Mrs. D. P. Purcell in Capitol Square this evening, burying his teeth in her skirts just below the waist and making a rent of several inches, and leaving the mark of his teeth through the cloth. Mrs. Purcell beat off the dog with her umbrella, and several men who went to her aid pursued the animal some distance, but lost track of him. There is much complaint about untamed dogs roaming the streets.
